4. RCMP Monthly Report – Sgt. H. V. Prime

Sgt. Prime reviewed the report of January/February 2023.

The committee highlighted their ask for foot patrols on town streets and perhaps the occasional visits to the Town businesses. Sgt. Prime indicated that he will be speaking to the members about this request and hopes that when the warmer weather arrives, the public will see more members do walk about's.

Councillor Trinacty mentioned that he was speaking to a business owner in town who was extremely thankful for the successful work from the RCMP and subsequent visit to their store regarding a shoplifting occurrence.

5. Information Requested by Committee

CAO Boyd reviewed the report she prepared regarding the current RCMP policing contract, what was the original number of officers approved in 2000 compared to today and what services we pay for compared to the original contract in 2000.

6. H Division Open House

Sgt. Prime explained there will be an Open House at Dartmouth Headquarters on May 17th. Sgt. Prime proposed that perhaps the committee, Council and members of the public may like to attend the event and to confirm with him approximate numbers. Mr. Morse suggested that a bus be rented to transport people to the event.
